

I am opposed to any move to weaken the New Jersey or the Federal "Do Not Call List". I always hated telephone solicitations, they called at dinner time; they were obnoxious; they made me feel less comfortable in my own home. The laws have been very effective in eliminating these unwanted calls. I do not know why anyone would propose to change them. Please do not weaken these laws.